Hello Helen and Eva,

Helen – I would like to introduce you to Eva Roney, Assistant to Justice Brett Kavanaugh. Eva has been working closely with me, Professor Mascott, and Mary Jones to coordinate plans for the summer course with the Justice.

Eva - As I mentioned to you by phone yesterday, Professor Helen M. Alvare<https://www.law.gmu.edu/faculty/directory/fulltime/alvare_helen> has agreed to serve as the faculty liaison for the summer course as Professor Mascott has taken leave for a new opportunity.

My understanding from Professor Mascott is that she is currently working with Justice Kavanaugh on the syllabus and has committed to completing that portion of the course preparation. Once, that is complete, we will coordinate next steps concerning reading materials and communications to students. I look forward to working with all of you to produce a wonderful class and to ensure a smooth transition. Please let me know if you have any questions or need any other information from me.

-Paula

Hello Eva,

I wanted to let you know that Helen and I will be meeting with the students from the study abroad class on Tuesday, May 21st. At that time, I would like to pass along to them as much information as possible about the course materials they will need. Specifically, Justice Kavanaugh mentioned the use of a text book when he met with the students. Please pass along the title/edition of the book at your earliest convenience so that we can be sure to have our bookstore order a sufficient quantity for purchase. We have already arranged for a pocket Constitution and Magna Carta to be available. Please also let me know if any other materials will need to be purchased or if the remainder can be made available on-line.

If the syllabus is ready by May 21st, I'd be happy to pass that along to the students as well.

Thank you,

-Paula

Hi Jenn,

Hope all is going well. I just wanted to pass along the Justice's preferred class schedule. I thought it might be helpful to you as you are preparing the syllabus or other materials. He'd like to do 2 class sessions each morning with a 20 minute break.

9:00 – 10:30 Class

10:30 – 10:50 Break

10:50 – 12:20 Class

Eva has been really helpful in coordinating his schedule. All is proceeding well.

Take care,

Hi Paula,

Thank you very much for sending along this information. Eva Roney, Justice Kavanaugh's assistant, should be able to find out which of the two schedules the Justice would prefer. Would you be willing to reach out to her about the preferred morning schedule (i.e., 9-12:20 with one break or 9-12:30 with two breaks)? Also, she could help correspond with Justice Kavanaugh about the excursions that you're counting on him to attend.

Thanks again for all of your work on this.

Subject: Summer Course Schedule

Hi Jenn,

I received the following information from the administration:

The ABA requires approximately 24 hours of direct instruction for students to earn 2 credits. Direct instruction is time the instructor(s) are teaching (and would not include class breaks, etc.). There should also be approximately 48 hours of "outside" work that students do (assigned reading, writing papers or other assignments, etc.) as well. You're correct that a field trip or other excursion would not be direct instruction unless the instructor is leading the excursion and providing instruction to students along the way.

As there are 8 days of classroom instruction (M, Tu, Th, F of each week), I would recommend allotting approximately 3.5 hours per day for class sessions and breaks. Perhaps one of the following schedules.

9:00 – 10:00 Class

10:00 – 10:15 Break

10:15 – 11:15 Class

11:15 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 12:30 Class

OR

9:00 – 10:30 Class

10:30 – 10:50 Break

10:50 – 12:20 Class

Please let me know whatever schedule you'd like and we can include it in the itinerary we share with students.

Finally, as you are working in putting together the syllabus, please let the Justice know that we are expecting him to participate in the Wednesday excursions to the [REDACTED]. In addition, Dean Butler has connected with an alum who is an Associate at [REDACTED] who has offered to host students in their office and chat with them about working at a firm in the UK. Perhaps this is something we can incorporate into our day [REDACTED]. I'd be happy to reach out to him for more information, unless you'd prefer to do that directly.

Hope all is going well for you this week.

Great! Just so long as we know by when the students have to RSVP then that is fine. I plan to order at that time. There's always a chance we can reduce tickets too (wouldn't let students know that)... I will check into that.

Dear Ms. Roney,

Jennifer Mascott passed along your contact information so that I can introduce myself and my colleague Mary Jones as we are both working on the Study Abroad program that will take place in England in July. I am overseeing the program and Mary is working with me as a consultant on housing and other logistics. Professor Mascott will be coordinating the academic aspects of the course.

We understand that Justice Kavanaugh's family will be joining him from [REDACTED] and we are working this week to secure appropriate accommodations for that time frame. If there have been any changes to those dates, please let us know.

I am sure we will have more questions and need more information from you as the program approaches. Likewise, if we can do anything to assist you in your planning and coordination, please let us know. I have included our contact information below. We look forward to working with you in the coming months.

Good morning Paula,

I wanted to check back in regards to the below email, and the status of the accommodations. Also, I will be booking the flights soon, and I wanted to confirm who/when I should send the receipts for reimbursement. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Eva

Hi Eva,

Yes, the teaching dates are Monday, July 22-Friday, August 2. We also have an opening reception and dinner planned for 6:00 to 9:00 pm the evening of Sunday, July 21st which we hope the Justice can attend.

Mary and I will investigate extending the dates for the larger accommodation, and I will circle back with you next week. I am out of the office the remainder of the week.

Best,

-Paula

Dear Paula,

Justice Kavanaugh's family travel plans are still somewhat TBD. They might be arriving earlier than [REDACTED] Since the family might be arriving during the first week, would it be possible to reserve the larger accommodation for the entire time that he will be teaching? Also, HR told me the teaching dates are Monday, July 22-Friday, August 2, and I wanted to confirm that I have the correct dates? Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Eva

Dear Ms. Roney,

Jennifer Mascott passed along your contact information so that I can introduce myself and my colleague Mary Jones as we are both working on the Study Abroad program that will take place in England in July. I am overseeing the program and Mary is working with me as a consultant on housing and other logistics. Professor Mascott will be coordinating the academic aspects of the course.

We understand that Justice Kavanaugh's family will be joining him from [REDACTED], and we are working this week to secure appropriate accommodations for that time frame. If there have been any changes to those dates, please let us know.

I am sure we will have more questions and need more information from you as the program approaches. Likewise, if we can do anything to assist you in your planning and coordination, please let us know. I have included our contact information below. We look forward to working with you in the coming months.

Sincerely,

-Paula

Hi Eva,

Thanks so much for taking the time to talk through some options this morning. Here is some information about the resort where the GMU staff will be staying. [REDACTED] oes provide adjoining rooms and has nice amenities including indoor and outdoor pools. We will continue to look for some additional options that are larger and would include a kitchen. Please let me know if an air bnb accommodation would be acceptable.

I'm also noting that we'll need to pass along information about the selected accommodations and class locations so that you can pass that along to the marshals. We won't pursue [REDACTED] but will assume that the marshals
